To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BRIEFS.—The ladies of Highgate will give an oyster supper at Johnson's hotel, on Wednesday evening, November 18th, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the Episcopal Church in that town. Bill, $2 per couple.

Senator J. S. Morrill has our thanks for pub. doc.

Falling meteors were seen in great numbers last night and early this morning. One gentleman—Mr. C. H. Baker—in a walk of eight minutes, at half past five o'clock this morning, counted 50. Look out for the meteors again tonight.

To arrive—150 barrels of Vermont apples. See Messrs. Shattuck & Stranahan's advertisement, in another place.

R. O. S. has our thanks for a report of the Good Templars convention held here yesterday, but as our compositors had in hand a pretty full report of the proceedings we do not have occasion to use it, as we otherwise should.

The brethren of 76 Lodge will hold a Levee and Cotillon Party at the Central House, Swanton on Thursday evening, November 19, 1868, for the benefit of the Lodge. Brethren of the different orders will appear in regalia. Bill $4.00. The committee of invitation are, Geo. M. Hall, A. B. Jewett, H. C. Jenison.

SENATOR EDMUNDS.—Hon. George F. Edmunds and family arrived at Washington on Wednesday evening last, and have gone into winter quarters. The Senator's early movement is in consequence of his duties as Chairman of the Joint Retrenchment Committee, who will resume their sessions there in a few days.

HISTORY OF HYDE PARK.—Mr. D. H. Blecknell is compiling a history of Hyde Park for the Vermont Historical Gazetteer.

MORRISTOWN.—Jonathan Cook, Esq., an aged and respected citizen of Morristown informs the Newsdealer that when he came into that town in 1835, there were fifty families in town, and that now only one member, Mrs. Daniel Little is alive. She about 82 years of age.

THE APPLE CROP.—The apple crop in Windham Co. has been quite good this season, and large quantities have been shipped. Mr. Gates, of Dummerston, alone has shipped 1,000 barrels to Boston. Six thousand bushels have been used to make cider at one mill in Ferrisburg.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. Samuel Randall, and Vernon W. Halbert of St. Albans, have purchased the new Hotel of Geo. P. Howe at Essex Junction, and will take possession immediately. The house is situated near the Railroad depot; it will be provided with all the modern improvements and fixtures of a first class house, and will be thrown open to the public in about two weeks. Mr. Randall has had considerable experience heretofore in keeping a public house, at Fairfax, Vermont. Mr. Halbert leaves his position under Mr. Elliott, in the General Ticket Office of the Vermont Central Railroad to engage in his new occupation. Mr. Halbert has hosts of friends on the line of the Railroad, and we predict for them, a large and profitable business.

Mr. Wm. M. Alvord has resigned his position as head clerk in the Rutland Post Office, and accepted a place in the office of Newell & Co., wholesale paper dealers, New York City. Mr. E. A. Fields succeeds Mr. Alvord.

Mr. J. S. D. Taylor, Superintendent of St. Albans, was present at the meeting of the Superintendents of the several towns in Chittenden County, held at the Court House in Burlington, on Tuesday, and we learn from the Free Press contributed largely to the interest and profit of the meeting.

Mr. W. Metzke, who has resigned his place as organist of Trinity church, in Rutland has accepted a similar position in Montpelier, in Bethany church (Dr. Lord's).

REV. E. C. CUMMINGS, pastor of the North Church, at St. Johnsbury, has announced his purpose to close his labors with that Church at the expiration of the 9th year of his pastorate—in May 1869.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Samuel Prenter, tinware dealer, and belonging to Rutland, this State, fell from a third story window in Concord Street, Boston, to the pavement, and died almost instantly. When taken up it was found that his spinal column was fractured, and some of his limbs broken. The deceased was a widower, and had an only son, who took charge of the body and took it to Rutland for interment. It is supposed that Mr. P. was looking from the window, and, losing his balance, fell out.

SUICIDE.—On the evening of the 11th, a young man by the name of Warren W. Thomas, of Salisbury, VT., committed suicide in an attic chamber of the Merchant's Exchange, Boston, by shooting himself in the heart. He was 28 years of age, unmarried, and employed as a porter in the Merchant's Exchange.

GOOD PLUCK.—A great attraction on the street yesterday afternoon was the arrival of Capt. Robbins, from Northfield, with his bushel of corn, which he had wheeled from that place as a forfeit on the New York election—having bet with a Mr. Bliss that Seymour would carry his own State by 50,000 majority. The distance is ten miles, and the gallant Captain made the trip in 2 hours and 55 minutes, notwithstanding the storm and the mud. He was followed by his opponent, carrying the stars and stripes, with the motto—"I bet and I won!" Another gentleman brought up the rear, with a banner on which was inscribed—"Grant and Co. fax." On the arrival of the party in town, a large crowd gathered and followed to the American House, where all were welcomed and entertained by the Montpelier Band.—Montpelier Journal, 12th.

If Samson's strength actually lay in the length and abundance of his hair, a liberal use of the famous "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" ought to impart many times the strength of that doughty warrior, for there is no limit. It will reach it if not properly applied.—N. H. Patriot, d&w.

Life has few charms for the Dyspeptic, which is not to be wondered at when we take into the account the amount of bodily and mental suffering that this distressing malady generates. The Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron) has cured thousands who were suffering from this disease. w.

Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil is sold by most of our Druggists and Merchants, and has become a standard article in market. This position it has won by its merit. It is clean to use. It cures pain where it is used faithfully, and we intend always to keep it in the house to use. Try it. d&w.

110 LISPENARD ST.,
NEW YORK, October 13, 1867.

DEAR SIR:—It is with much pleasure that I say to you that I consider the Plantation Bitters of untold value. In the fall of 1867 I was taken with Chills and Fever, with the most severe pains in my chest and head. It was with great difficulty that I could breathe. My lungs were greatly distressed, and there was a pain in my right side, by spells. I could hardly get up from bed. I called a Doctor, who attended me all winter without the least benefit. About the first of August I commenced using your Plantation Bitters—a wine-glass full three times a day—and have used it most of the time since, and I am now well and strong, able to do all my own work and the care of a large family. Yours, &c.
